Daniel Leas Morley is the Pledge Coordinator for the racist white nationalist group Identity Evropa (now American Identity Movement). Morley is responsible for guiding new applicants through the vetting process and “becoming full members of this great organization”. He has been a member since 2017.

A resident of Chesterfield County, Virginia, Dan fulfilled the family legacy and became a police officer, his current posting as the School Resource Officer at L.C. Bird High School in Chesterfield. Dan has moved a lot recently, most recently appears to have been about 4 months ago with his fiance Abbie. His current address unknown. When not trolling in his CPD squad car, Morley can be seen out on the town in his black/gray 2007 Ford Mustang, license plate BRBRSA.

Good afternoon newcomers to IE! I'm the new pledge coordinator. My job is to help guide people through the process of applying to IE and becoming full members of this great organization. If you have any questions about what you need to do next, DM me and I'll get back to you.

Danimal876 9/30/2018, 5:47:32 PM

As a reminder, after your first interview, you need to do a second interview with your state's coordinator. You also need to attend a membership orientation meeting headed by the head of IE. These orientation's are held on the second Tuesday and last Saturday of each month at 8:00 PM Eastern Standard Time.

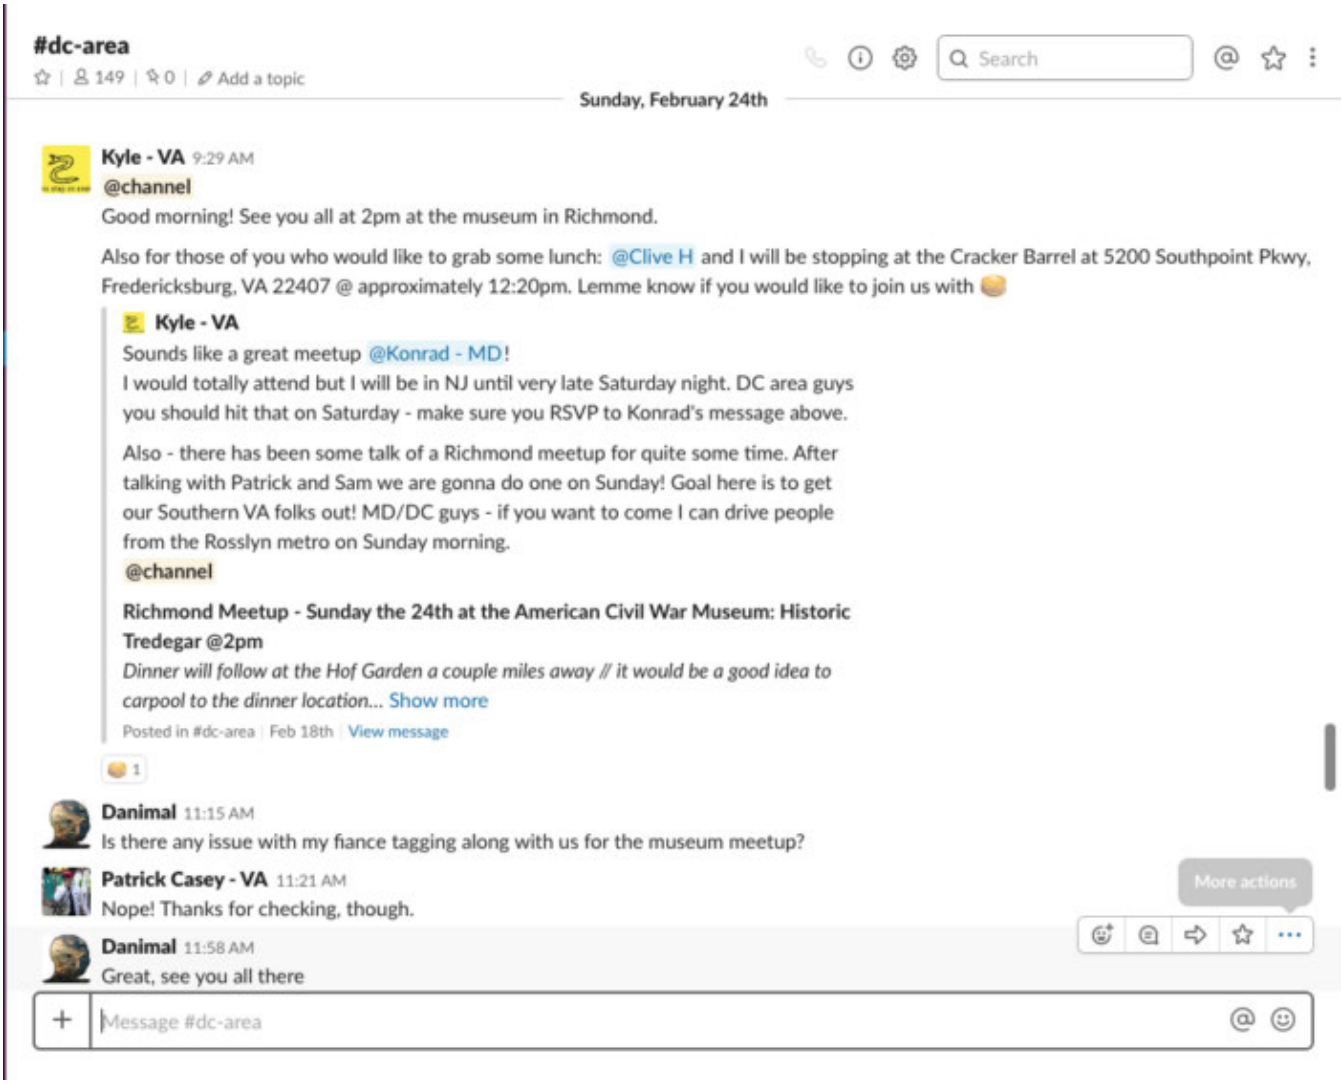
Which states are you all from? When you get a chance, if you can change your nicknames to include the state you're in, like how mine says "- VA" after Danimal876. Also good to do soon is to set an avatar.

Danimal876 11/13/2018, 1:51:41 PM

There will normally be two membership orientations a month: one on the second Tuesday and the other on the last Saturday of each month. They're held at 8:00 PM EST in the Pledge Hall voice chat room. There are weekly, optional "fireside" chats every Wednesday evening at 8:30. Other special events, like large conferences or actions, are announced as time goes on.



Executive Director Casey approves Morley's request to bring his fiance to IE Virginia's field trip

Am a cop, cannot confirm. I've personally come across situations where the evidence was initially pointing in favor of the woman, but because the man pointed out evidence in his favor, the woman was actually arrested for domestic assault (she literally threw her shit at him). This attitude that cops are just out to get convictions (it makes no goddamn difference to us if you are convicted) is BS. We're here to enforce the law. If our investigation shows that no one should be arrested, we do not want to and will not arrest you.

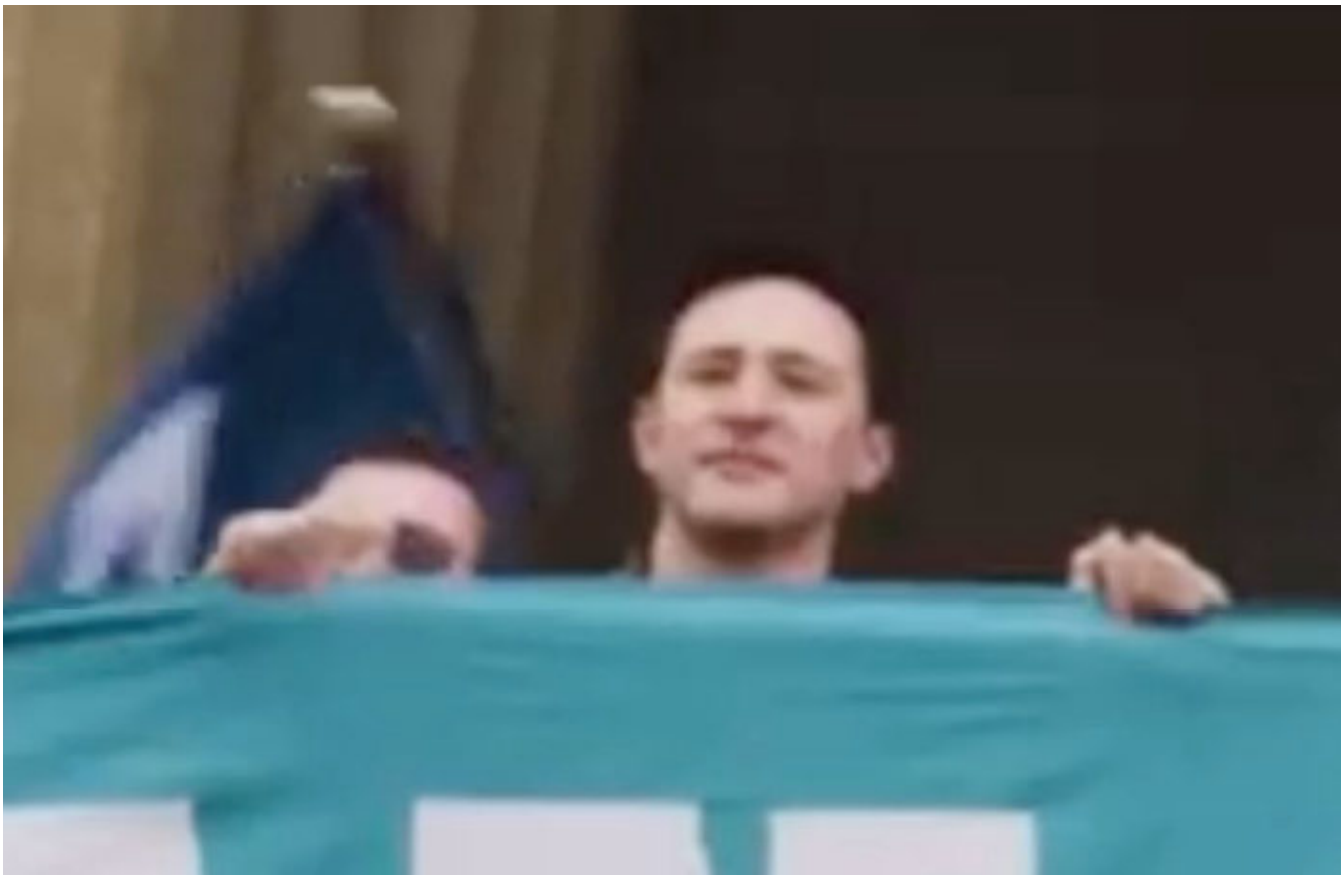
@Anthony Sealy - MO On that topic, I was talking to a high school principal the other day who was going through the school with a higher-up. The majority of the classes they went to had no instruction going on whatsoever, even though they saw these two people come in. Blew my mind.

Comments on Red Pill Forum and Discord linking "Danimal876" to (1) being a police officer that (2) would casually be speaking with a high school principal



Dan at a 2018 IE action

Although relatively tight lipped on Discord (only 105 messages posted in over a year), some of Dan's older comments on websites like TheRedPill and StormFront have fermented a bit and lent us some insight into his views. Dan admits to being a White Nationalist and generally keeping in line with typical anti-semitic white supremacist ideology. While in college he demarcates himself as part of the new generation of racists however, promoting a softer approach in propaganda rhetoric and graphics. No wonder that a decade later he would assume a leadership position within an organization of the alt-right cadre.

The main Jewish organizations have pushed for open borders for quite some time. Individual Jews can often be against it, but the leadership has always been uncomfortable with homogeneous European societies, as they've historically been considered and consider themselves the outsiders in Europe.

Logos and Genocide Talk

Does the "White Pride World Wide" slogan surrounding the cross logo in the upper-left hand corner help this site, or hurt it more? I consider myself a White Nationalist, but I think simplistic displays like that make us seem unintelligent and too similar to Nazis.

I think its great that you can't use racial epithets on this board. When people who are neither against us or for us come here, they will be pleasantly surprised to see that we're not how Hollywood would want us to act, like in American History X. But the content of people's post needs to follow the spirit of that change and not wistfully call for the annihilation of other peoples.

The sooner this board can negotiate being pro-White without being too counterculture, the sooner WN's of all stripes can unify.

Dan and his fiance, Abigail Franck are members of the Ealdrice Fellowship. Perhaps too close for coincidence, this is one of the same paganist congregations frequented by Seargent Rob Stamm of the Virginia Capitol Police. As seen in this article and the below network graphic, Dan Morley is positioned in a nexus between multiple Virginia police departments and proto-fascist organizations. This makes him a sensitive, valuable, and potentially dangerous asset embedded within the state for Patrick Casey and the American Identity Movement.
